INDEX

TO THE

BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS REVIEWED, AND THE REMARKABLE PASSAGES EXTRACTED FROM THEM.

SEE ALSO THE CONTENTS.

A.

ABSTRACT of the Budget 1784. 395.
Advice, to Bookſellers. Perfumers, &c. 143. to the people preparatory to a general election, 151.
Aeroſtation, or the Templers Stratagem, 466.
African Slaves, Eſſay on the treatment and converſion of, 39. deſcription of their treatment in the Weſt Indies, 42.
Agriculture, remarks on the importance of, 76.
Aleppo city of, deſcribed, 330.
America, deſcription of the preſent ſtate of, 74. remarks concerning the Savages there, 75.
American commerce, free and candid remarks on, 74.
American revolution, Dr. Price's obſervations on the importance of it, 321.
American backwood Riflemen, deſcription of them, 349.
An author's conduct to the public ſtated, 412.
Angler's muſeum. 144.
Apologia, 399.
Appeal to the publick, 142.
Argument collected, or ſtate carriage reviewed, 468.
Art of happineſs, 469.
Avaro and Tray; or the difference between reaſon and the brutal inſtinct, 462.
Automaton cheſs player detected, 143.

B.

BAgdad, city of, deſcribed, 329.
Baſtard; or the Hiſtory of Mr. Grenville, 305.
Barham Downs, a novel, 142.
Backhouſe Dr. his ſermon at Deal, on the thankſgiving for the peace, 472.
Bear park near Durham, account of 244.
Behm Col. inſcription on the piece of plate ſent him for his attention to Capt. Clerke. 48.
Bell's ſyſtem of ſurgery, 421,
Biographia Britannica, 81, 193.
Biography ſacred, lectures on, 37.
Bleſſings of peace and the guilt of war, 230.

Block's Okonomiſche Naturgeſchihte der Fiſche Dantſchlands, 309.
Blount's ancient Tenures, 95.
Botanical analogy, ſhort attempt to recommend the ſtudy of it, 144.
Boxe's plans for reducing the national expence, 468.
Boyd, Mark Alexander, ſketch of his Life, 407.
Britiſh Empire, view of, 369.
Britiſh ſubjects, inveſtigation of the natural rights of, 16.
Burke, Mr. his repreſentation to his Majeſty moved in the Houſe of Commons, 72.

C.

Cadwallerian elegies, 147.
Calender of nature, 226.
Campbell, Dr. his perſonal Hiſtory by Dr. Kippis, 62.
Canada, deſcription of, 103.
Candour's appeal to independence, 74,
Canons of criticiſm, 424.
Canterbury, metropolitan church of deſcribed, 272.
Capper, Col. his memorial to the Eaſt India Directors, 377.
Carraway mountains in America deſcribed, 351.
Cartwright's internal evidence of the truth of the Chriſtian religion, 392.
Chalmers, Mr. his opinion on intereſting ſubjects of public law and commercial policy, 365.
Chamberlain's treatiſe on the efficacy of cowhege, 145.
Cheſſelden, Mr. particulars of his life by Dr. Kippis, 64.
Clinton Sir Henry, his letter to the Commiſſioners of Accounts, 228.
Clive Lord, narrative of his life and fortunes, 197.
Coalitioniſt, a ſatire, 398.
Coals, obſervations on the evil conſequences that will ariſe from a duty on them, 151.
Coke's commentaries, 1.
Cappe Mr. his ſermon at York, on the thankſgiving for the peace, 476.
Commentaries and eſſays, by the ſociety for propagating the Scripture, 21.
Conduct of the late Miniſters conſidered, 4.
Coney and Adelaide, 147.
Conſtitutional truths, 148.
Cook, Capt. his voyages, 45, 111, 204, 281. his reception at Othaeite and imprudent behaviour of Omaiah, 112. his deſcription of the ceremony of offering a human ſacrifice, 115. ceremony of reception at Sandwich Iſland, 205. circumſtances of his death, 208. particulars reſpecting the country of Kamtſchatka, 282. mode of travelling there, 285.
Corfu, deſcription of the town and fortifications of, 332.
Corn diſtillery, ſtate of it, 19.
Coxe's travels, 401.
Cranmer, Thos. Archbiſhop of Canterbury, life of, 428. his celebrated recantations deſcribed, 430.
Cromwell, memoirs of the Protectorate Houſe of, 172.
Curtis, Sir Roger, his reply to a neglected naval officer, 143.

D.

Dairying exemplified, 143.
Dean Silas, his addreſs to the United States of America, 393.
Denoument, or hiſtory of lady Louiſa Wingrove, 391.
D. Junii Juvenalis et auli Perſii Flacci ſatiræ Expurgatæ, 413.
Dialogue in the Elyſian Fields, 465.
Dickenſon Mr. his ſermon, at Blymhill in Staffordſhire, on the thankſgiving for the peace, 476.
Duelling diſſertation on, 390.
Duncombe's hiſtorical deſcription of the Metropolitan Church of Canterbury, 272. his tranſlation of the ſelect works of the Emperor Julian, 300.

E.

Eaſt India company, ſhort ſtate of the preſent ſituation of, 397.
Editha a tragedy, 148.
Edward's treatiſe on Gooſe graſs, 145.
Edwy, a dramatic poem, 262.
Electricity, eſſay on, 224.
Elegiac ſonnets and other eſſays, 231.
Elements of ſhort hand, 225.
Emperor Julian, tranſlation of the ſelect works of, 300.
Encomium, a poem, 446.
Engliſh grammar, conciſe ſyſtem of, 473.

F.

Fables, 392.
Female Monitor, 391.
Fevers, phyſical enquiry into the cure of them, 354.
Fielding's regal titles, 144.

Fothergill, Dr. his opinion of that moſt miſchievous of meals dinner, 361, his works, by Dr. Lettſom, 440.
Foundling Hoſpital for wit, 146.
Fox's Martyrs, a new work, 236.
Fox and Pitt's ſpeeches, 468.
Franklin, Dr. his two tracts, containing imformation to thoſe who would remove to America, 74.
Free and candid review of the obſervations on American commerce 102.

French metropolis, a poem, 229.
French memoirs for 1780, 306. 447.
Fritter, 312.

G.

Gibraltar, authentic accurate Journal of the late ſiege of, 313.
Gilpin's life of Archbiſhop Cranmer, 427.
Groſe's antiquities of England and Wales, 241.
Guinea worm, obſervations on it, 110.

H.

Hamilton John, a ſecular Prieſt, ſketch of his life, 407.
Handel, George Frederic, his life, 142, his ghoſt, an ode, 146.
Hargrave, Mr. his edition of Coke's commentary, 1. ſpecimen of his annotations, 3.
Harvey, Dr. his diſcovery of the circulation of the blood, 10.
Hayley, Mr. his plays for a private theatre, 13. extract from his play of Lord Ruſſel, 14.
Health, Rules for perſerving it, 145.
Highlanders of Scotland, picture of their ſufferings, 370.
Hints to the new parliament, 73.
Hodſon's Obſervations on Sterne's Medical Advice, 144
Holcroft, Mr. his tranſlation of d'Obſonville's philoſophical eſſays. 108.
Human ſpecies, varieties of, 336 men with tails; 336 with one leg bigger than another; 337 with one leg; 337 with eyes in their breaſts, 337.
Humane Society, Ode to, 232.
Hughes, Mrs. Poems by, 311
Hunter, Dr. H. his lectures on ſacred biography, 37.
Hunter, Dr. W. his introductory lectures; 8 his deſcription of the merits and performances of Leonardi de Vinci, 9; of Harvey's diſcovery of the circulation of the blood. 10.
Huſſey, Dr. his phyſical enquiry into the cure of fevers, 354.

I.

Iago's poems, moral and deſcriptive, 374
Jerningham's riſe and progreſs of Scandinavian poetry, 177.
Illicit Trade, report of the committee on, 149, 393.
Immortality of the Soul, eſſay on, 304
Immortality of Shakeſpeare, 465
Imogen, a paſtoral romance, 142.
Infant Baptiſm, ſhort view of its nature and neceſſity, 313.
Infidelity, letters on, 31.
Journal kept on a journey from Baſſora to Bagdad, 327.
Italian letters, or the hiſtory of the Count de St. Julian, 312.

K.

Kamtſchatka, particulars reſpecting that country, 282. Mode of travelling, 285
Kippis's Biographia Britannica, 81, 193,
King's obſervations on the national debt, 134.
King's Weſton Hill, a Poem, 463.
Knighthood, conciſe hiſtory of, 34.
Knights Hill Farm, the ſtateſman's retreat, a poem, 426.

L.

LAND-Tax, expediency of an equal aſſeſſment of it, 257.
Leonardi de Vinci, his merit and performances deſcribed, 9.
Les Veillées de Château, ou cours de morale a l'uſage des enfants, 213.
Letters d'un Americain ſur la derniere revolution de Geneve, 129.
Letters from a member of the general conven-

convention in Scotland, 71; from Sir Henry Clinton to the Commiſſioners of Accounts, 228; to the independent electors of Weſtminſter, 234; wherein part of the entertainment unto the queen's majeſty at Killinſworth Caſtle in 1575, is ſignified 312; to the Biſhop of Norwich 353; of Marius, 396; ſeven to the common council of London, 396; to Sir Cecil Wray, Bart. 397; to a miniſter of an independent church, 399.

Louis XV. events of the early years of his reign, 135.

Louiſa, a poetical novel, 25.

M.

Mably, Abbe, obſervations ſur le gouvernment et le loix des etats unis d'Amerique. 450.

Mary Queen of Scots, remarks on the enquiry into the evidence againſt her, 178.

Maſeres's principles of life annuities, 151.

Medical Obſervations, 356.

Memoirs of the protectorate houſe of Cromwell, 172, 297.

Military Sketches, 144.

Miſcellaneous Pieces in proſe and verſe 467.

Modern Gardening, elements of, 391.

Monaſteries, diſcipline, dreſs, and peculiar rites of the antient ones in England, 242.

Monboddo, Lord, his ancient metaphyſics, 161, 333.

Moſs's medical ſurvey of Liverpool, 144.

Mother Hubbard's tale of the fox and ape, 467.

Mulgrave, Lord his eulogium on Capt. Cook, 49.

Myſtery hid from ages, 17.

N.

Narrative of the debates in parliament on Eaſt India affairs, 394.

National Debt, obſervations on, 234.

Noble peaſant, a comic opera, 279.

Norwich, Biſhop of, letter to him, 353.

N——b, Lord, condemned, and Lord S——b——e vindicated, 467.

O.

Obſervations ſur le gouvernment et les loix des etats uni d'Amerique, 450.

Obſervations on the climate of Naples, Rome, Nice, &c. 373.

Ode to the Humane Society, 232; to Robert Brook, 232.

Omai, a native of Otaheite, account of his behaviour in London, 50; his imprudent conduct on returning to his own country, 112; his character by Captain Cook, 125.

Opera Houſe diſputes fairly ſtated, 471.

Orgil, Mr. his ſermon for the benefit of the Lunatic Aſylum at York, 314.

Original love letters, 310.

Otaheite, deſcription of the ceremony of offering a human ſacrifice there, 115

P.

Pædobaptiſm examined, 200.

Paracenteſis of the thorax, extract from Bell's ſyſtem of ſurgery on, 421.

Parliamentary reform, thoughts on, 70; Anſwer to it, 70; other thoughts on, 70.

Parr, governor, vindication of him and his council, 228.

Paſtoral in four parts, 461.

Patriot ſoldier, a poem, 463.

Paupers, heads of a plan for maintaining them, 473.

Percival's moral and literary diſſertations, 181.

Peru, a poem, 28,

Picturesque beauties of Shakeſpear, 186

Plaſſey, account of the battle of, 195.

Poetical attempts, 372.

Poetical epiſtle to a friend in the country, 463

Poland, Mr. Coxe's account of the partition of 404.

Poor, hints relative to the management of, 434.

Prettyman, Dr. his ſermon before the Houſe of Commons on the thankſgiving for the peace, 398.

Price, Dr. his observations on the importance of the American revolution, 321.
Priestley, Dr. remarks in vindication of him, 469.

Q.

Q. Horatii Flacci Carmina expurgater, 413.
Quid, Oliver, his safe and easy plan for the conduct of money transactions 143

R.

Ramsay, Mr. his essay on the treatment and conversion of African slaves. 39, 104.
Recherches et doutes sur le magnetisme animal, 381
Reform, hints for one in gaming clubs, 151.
Remarks in vindication of Dr. Priestley, 469.
Rencontre, or transition of a moment, 460.
Reply of Sir Roger Curtis, 143.
Report of the Committee on illicit trade, 149, 393.
Rhodes, chief town of described, 330.
Rhodomontade of Politics, 427.
Royal Rake, or cabinet of wit and humour, 312.
Rump and Dozen. 462.
Russel, Lord, extracts from Hayley's tragedy of, 14.
Russian constitution, some particulars of it not generally known, 338.

S.

Sandwich Islands, ceremony of Captain Cook's reception there, 205.
Savages in America, remarks concerning them, 75.
Scandinavian Poetry, Jenninghams rise and progress of 177.
School for Scandal, a comedy, 466.
Schoolmaster's complete companion, 225.
Scott, Major, his reply to Mr. Burke's speech on Mr. Fox's India Bill, 225; his speech on Mr. Pitt's bill, 395.
Secker, Archbishop, his life, 274.
Sermons on important subjects, by Mr. Stockdale, 98; preached before the university of Oxford, by Mr. Tatham, 313; at York by Mr. Orgill, for the benefit of the Lunatic Atylum, 314; The Spiritual Harvest, by Dr. Bewicke, 314; Thanksgiving, one at St. Margaret's, by Dr. Prettyman, 398; at Richmond, by Mr. Wakefield, 398; at Westminster Abbey by the Bishop of St. Davids, 398; at Blymhill, Staffordshire, by Mr. Dickenson, 399; at York, by Mr. Cappe, 470; at Deal, by Dr. Backhouse, 472;
Seward, Miss, her Louisa, 25.
Shakespear, picturesque beauties of, 185.
Sheridan, Thomas, his edition of Dean Swift's works, 440.
Shield of Achilles, 356.
Shipwreck, a tragedy, 147.
Shooting, a poem, 189.
Slaves in the West Indies, essay on their treatment, 39.
Spanish Rivals, a farce, 464.
Speaking figure detected, 143.
Stair Earl of, his address and expostulation with the public, 467.
Stockdale, Mr. his sermons on important subjects, 98; his three poems. 98.
St. David's, Bishop of, his sermon before the House of Lords on the thanksgiving for the peace, 398.
St. Ruthin's Abbey, 461.
Swift, Dean, anecdotes of his life, 443.

T.

Tatham, Mr. his sermon before the University of Oxford, 313.
Theophilus and Olympia, 215.
Thomas, Mrs. her poems, 466.
Translations of Horace's Epistle to the Pisos, 392.
Trifles in verse, by a young soldier. 344.
Trinity House, address to the wardens and corporation of 397.
True Fashion, an essay on, 148.
Trye, Charles Brandon, his remarks on the morbid retention of urine, 437.
Turner, Sir Barnard, elegiac tale on his death 232.

U.

Vanity of Fame, a poem, 223.
Villager, a poem, 245.
Villars, Marchal, life of, 61, 138.
Virtuous Villager, a novel, 436.

United

United States of America, a tour in, 346; manner of life of a gentleman of fortune there, 347.
Universal tax directory, 472.
Voyages of Captain Cook, 45; observations on the beneficial tendency of them, 46.
Urine, morbid retention of, remarks on, 437.

W.

Wales, Grose's antiquities of, 241.
Walker's essay on Harrogate waters, 223.
Westminster Scrutiny, thoughts on the causes of the delay of, 74; observations on the police of, 150.
Westminster Guide, 148.
Williams, Mrs. her Peru, a poem, 28.
Wit of the day, or the humours of Westminster, 312.

Z.

Zante, description of the town and island, of, 231.

INDEX

TO THE

NATIONAL AFFAIRS.

A.

AIR Balloons, reflections on the utility of them, 240.

Algiers, diſappointment of Spain in their attack on, 169.

America, probable views of, 137: ſcarcity of money there, 400; diſſatisfied with their rulers, 400.

B.

Bourbon, ambition of the houſe of, 157.

Brunſwick, Duke of, his reſignation of his offices, 319.

C.

Canada, intentions of miniſtry reſpecting it, 80,

Chancellor, little regard paid by him to the deciſion of the Court of Seſſions i Scotland, 79.

Civil War, conſequences of one breaking out between this country and Ireland, 159.

Convicts, how to be diſpoſed of, 80.

Crown and waſte lands to be diſpoſed of, 80.

Czarinas of Ruſſia, the obligations the world owes them from carrying civilization northward, 409; predilection of the preſent Czarina for England, 480.

D.

Dutch, reflections on them, 238; preſent ſtate of that country, 316; difference betwixt them and their forefathers, 316; not in a condition at preſent to make war, 317; inteſtine diviſions in, 318; their inclination to a mediation, 400; Heaven declares in their favour, 474; their reſources and method of defence, 475; defenſive war recommended to them, 475; detail of their decline, 475.

E.

Eaſt-India Bill, analyſis of it, 78.

Eaſt-Indies, government of, 152.

Emigration, the evil of pointed out, 158.

Emperor, his claims on the Dutch, 159; his movements and ſucceſs, 237; reaſons for his claims, 238; his good underſtanding with France, 239; ſpeculations on his proceedings, 312; conſequences that may ariſe from his claim of the free navigation of the Scheldt, 315; his wiſdom and good policy, 318; his prohibition of Engliſh hardware, 320; his movements againſt the Dutch, 400; his ſituation and reſources, 478.

England fitted for agriculture, Scotland for fiſhery, 320.

Europe, uncertainty of the tranquility of it being yet diſturbed by the Emperor and the Dutch, 400.

F.

Iſheries of Scotland, revenue to be derived from them, 153; example of of Holland recommended in the conduct of them, 134.

Fisheries, political advantages arising from the establishment of them, 155.
France, probable views of, 157; good understanding between them and the Emperor, 239; seems inclined not to assist the Dutch, 479; Franklin, Dr. his retirement from public employment, 160.

G.

Great-Britain, pacific disposition of, 77; contrast between it and Turkey, 239.
Greece, in ancient times, and modern Europe, compared, 400.

H.

Heaven declares itself on the side of the Dutch republic, 474.
Hierarchy of England to be extended, 80.
Holland, their example respecting the conduct of their fisheries, recommended, 154; open their sluices to prevent the progress of the Emperor, 474.

I.

Ireland, its volunteers, mobs, and free trade, 80; situation of, 158; consequences of a civil war with, 159; uncultivated state of the people there, 239; severity respecting them recommended, 239; Duke of Portland's administration praised, 319.
Irish people, reflections on their conduct, 80.

K.

King's speech, 151; observations on it, 152.

L.

Linens, unpopular tax on, 78.
Loughborough, Lord, his charge to a grand jury, 320.

M.

Military art, improvement of it favourable to humanity, 490.
Ministers, their flexibility, 77; conduct respecting navy-bills, 77; their projects respecting Ireland, 80; their designs, 156.
Munster, account of the peace of, 238.

N.

Navigation Act, policy of adhering to it, 157.
Nova Scotia, attention of ministers towards it, 80.

O.

Oeconomy, its necessity, 153; Ostend made a free port by the Emperor, 227.
Opposition, their candour, 77.

P.

Parliamentary reform, animadversions on, 319.
Portland, Duke of, his administration in Ireland praised, 319.
Prussia, reflections on the part it may take in the Emperor's dispute with the Dutch, 315. inclined to assist the Dutch, 478.

R.

Russia, benefits arising from their carrying civilization northward, 479; favourable disposition of, towards England, 479.

S.

Scheldt, reflections on the opening of, 159; prospect of its navigation being opened by the Emperor. 400.
Scotch Clergy, frequent appeals from their Court of Sessions, 79; their establishment, 79.
Scotland, spirit of liberty in, 319; their attention directed to their fisheries, 319; fitted for fishery, 320; flame of liberty encreases, 400; emigration from Holland to that country predicted in case of a war, 480.
Scottish nation, circumstances concurring to stimulate them, 155.
Smuggling, the prevention of, 156.
Spain, their establishment at Algiers, 160.

T.

Taxes of Great Britain, little opposition given to them, 77.
Turkey, political situation of, with respect to Great Britain, 239.

W.

WAR, the danger of a new one, 157.
Waste lands, improvement of, 136.